

Peace of mind is only a transfer away.

Introducing Advect™ Fluid Transfer Sets
for cell and gene therapy applications.

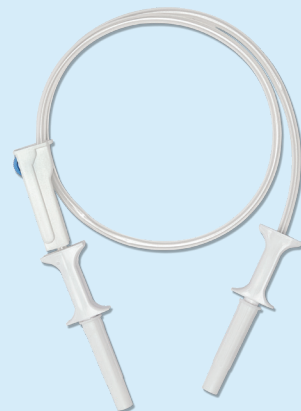

Intended for sterile transfer of bone marrow
mononuclear cells from one container to another.

Finding the right fit for your fluid transfer needs shouldn't be stressful. With our Advect Fluid Transfer Set, you no longer have to adapt products that were made for other industries. Designed specifically for cleanroom manufacturing, it can be used with your current sterile connection technologies and comes in 16 configurations, giving you the confidence you need to successfully sterile transfer material at every step.

Advect™ Fluid Transfer Sets Benefits

- Manufactured without DEHP
- Cleanroom compatible pouching
- Compatible with sterile connection technology
- 510(k) Cleared & CE Marked
- Meets single-use raw material quality expectations of cell and gene therapy manufacturing
- Supports industry expectations for cell-based compatibility and particulate level control

Increase your peace of mind today. Visit www.chartermedical.com to learn more.

Rx Only. Advect is a trademark of Charter Medical, Ltd.

